Factual Allegations

10. Plaintiff D'Epagnier was lawfully present at Truman Waterfront park on the 27th of February, 2023 at 2:50pm when he observed an outdoor shower available to the public.
11. After waiting for someone to finish giving their dog a shower, Plaintiff began using the shower and started to rinse out a few T-shirts.
12. A man, later identified as Ralph Major, approached Plaintiff telling him he couldn't be there because in his own words "I don't want to look at people like you."
13. Plaintiff questioned Major if he was in violation of park rules, and Major responded "I don't care about the rules."
14. This discriminatory behavior led Plaintiff to ask Major to leave him alone.
15. Plaintiff had been using the shower for about 2 minutes, and during this time no one was waiting to use the shower.
16. Major briefly made a phone call, presumably to the police.

17. Two minutes later, Major decided to threaten Plaintiff with the exact words: "I'ma knock you down."
18. After being threatened with violence D'Epagner immediately left the shower to avoid conflict and escalation.
19. A few minutes later Defendant Officer Standerwick approached Plaintiff.
20. Defendant Standerwick invented a park ordinance that does not exist of "no bathing where children bath" and accused Plaintiff of violating it without him observing anything.
21. Plaintiff asked Defendant Standerwick what the crime was, and Standerwick stated "I told you the law" (his law)
22. Defendant Standerwick demanded a name and date of birth from Plaintiff without a legal basis to do so.
23. The only action Defendant Brablc acted on was a phone call describing lawful behavior.
24. Defendant Officer Brablc arrived on scene and decided to immediately arrest D'Epagnier before he had bothered to investigate the situation.
25. After the arrest, Defendant Standerwick taunted Plaintiff stating that if he had given up his name he would have "walked on."
26. Defendant Standerwick remained hostile and condescending throughout the encounter.
27. The events were captured on Defendant Standerwick's body-worn camera.
28. In the official arrest report, Defendant Brablc stated that Plaintiff was in violation of park rules but failed to specify which rule.
29. Defendant Brablc falsely claims in the report that "he could be issued a warning."
No such "warning" was ever mentioned until after arrest.

30. Defendant Brablec claims in the report "I added, I was looking for a "yes or no" answer."

Brablec never actually said anything about yes or no.

31. Defendant Brablec states on Defendant Standerwick's camera that his camera was not activated, but he writes in the report "My AXION body worn camera was activated."

32. Plaintiff was charged with disorderly conduct without any observations from law enforcement and without evidence of disruptive or unlawful behavior.

33. Defendant Standerwick remained hostile and condescending throughout the encounter.

38. Defendant Brablec states on Defendant Standerwick's camera that his camera was not activated, but he writes in the report "My AXION body worn camera was activated."

39. Plaintiff was charged with disorderly conduct without any observations from law enforcement and without evidence of disruptive or unlawful behavior.

40. The Monroe County Detention Center has written rule #2 stating: "All directives and requests from staff members are orders and must be carried out promptly and fully without complaint. If you believe an order is unjust or have a complaint regarding an order or action, obey the order. You may later bring the complaint to the attention of another staff member by completing an Inmate Request Form documenting your complaint."

41. This rule requires inmates to obey all orders, even if the order is unjust or violates rights.
42. The charges of "resisting an officer without violence" and "disorderly conduct" were dropped, which indicates that the actions of the officers were unlawful.

Causes of Action

Count 1 – Unlawful Seizure (42 U.S.C. § 1983 – Fourth Amendment Violation)

43. Plaintiff D'Epagnier has a clearly established constitutional right under the Fourth Amendment to be secure in his persons, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures.
44. At all relevant times, Defendant Officer Brablc was acting under the color of state law in his official capacity as a law enforcement officer.
45. Defendant Brablc lacked reasonable suspicion that Plaintiff was engaged in criminal activity.
46. Defendant lacked probable cause and arrested Plaintiff in retaliation for his lawful exercise of his First and Fifth Amendment rights violating the Fourth Amendment's protections against unlawful seizures.
47. Defendant Brablc seized Plaintiff's personal identification and conducted an illegal search of his belongings violating his rights.

Count 2 - False Arrest/False Imprisonment (Florida Statute § 787.02)

48. Plaintiff D'Epagnier has a constitutional and statutory right to be free from unlawful detention and arrest under Florida law.

Count 3 - Malicious prosecution (42 U.S.C. § 1983 Fourth & Fourteenth Amendments)

51. Defendant Brablc initiated criminal proceedings against Plaintiff without probable cause thereby violating Plaintiff's Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment rights to be free from unreasonable seizures and without due process of law.
52. The criminal proceedings were resolved in Plaintiff's favor satisfying the favorable termination requirement for malicious prosecution claims.
53. Defendant Brablc acted with malice pursuing charges against Plaintiff out of spite with improper motive and reckless disregard for the truth, including reliance on fabricated information to initiate the prosecution.

Count 4 - Official Misconduct (Florida Statute § 838.022)

54. Defendant Standerwick knowingly and intentionally fabricated a false park ordinance which he knew was not an actual law in violation of Florida Statute § 838.022.
55. Defendant Standerwick intentionally misrepresented facts in his official capacity which lead to unlawful consequences for Plaintiff D'Epagnier.
56. Defendant's actions were willful, malicious, and in bad faith, with a reckless disregard for the truth and the rights of Plaintiff D'Epagnier.

Count 5 - Official Misconduct (Florida Statute § 838.022)

57. Defendant Brablec, while acting in his official capacity as a law enforcement officer, knowingly and intentionally produced false information in the official police report in violation of Florida Statute § 838.022.

60. Plaintiff D'Epagnier begged the guards to just let him pay his bail during pre-trial detention and his requests were denied without justification, constituting excessive and unconstitutional detention.
61. Plaintiff believes that the sole purpose of pre-trial detention is to ensure that he would appear later court. He believes only a judge can legally inflict punitive measures, and it is not for guards in the detention center to decide to.

Count 7 - Cruel and Unusual Punishment (42 U.S.C. § 1983 – Eighth Amendment)

62. The Eighth Amendment prohibits cruel and unusual punishment, including policies that facilitate degrading treatment of detainees.
63. The policy outlined in paragraph #34 creates conditions that facilitate abuse, violating Plaintiff's Eight Amendment rights under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

64. Defendant Monroe County Sheriff's Department refused to refund the $81 fee charged to Plaintiff for his release, citing it as the "cost of doing business" despite Plaintiff's innocence. Plaintiff considers any fee charged to an innocent person to be unreasonable and punitive and a violation of the Eighth Amendment and due process protections.
65. Holding the Plaintiff in 24 hour lighting and only allowing him out of the cell every other day for 20 minutes is unreasonable punishment for someone not proven guilty.
66. The theft of $47 from Plaintiff's backpack by detention officers is an unreasonable punishment and further violates Plaintiff's Eighth Amendment rights.

69. Plaintiff seeks punitive damages in an amount of $125,000, or such greater amount according to proof, to deter the defendants from committing reckless, malicious, and intentional violations of the plaintiff's constitutional rights, and to ensure the defendants fully regret their unlawful conduct.

70. Plaintiff seeks an injunction requiring the Monroe County Sheriff's Office and the Monroe County Detention Center to cease their unconstitutional practices, including forcing inmates to follow unjust orders and imposing punitive fees on innocent individuals.
